Quarter 1 in the Books!

EVERYONE is excited about Fall Break, so much so that many students may not even be thinking about the end of the 1st quarter. As such, it's important to remind students and families that quarter 1 grades are "in the books" for the most part, and this means that students who may not have grades where they should be only have 9 weeks in the semester to right the ship.

It is so important that students continue to work hard and check their grades. We urge students to communicate with their parents and teachers so there are no surprises.

Parents/Guardians, be sure to access your student's grades via the PowerSchool parent portal

(F)Unwind Friday

Today, students and staff celebrated the end of the 1st quarter and the beginning of Fall Break with an impromptu celebration on Don Willard Field. Students danced to some good tunes while participating in a few activities set up. It was a nice time to decompress and to begin the recharging process to get us ready for our return to school on Monday, October 18th.

ASVAB and PSAT after Fall Break

Many of our students will be participating in testing when we return from Fall Break.

On Thursday, October 21st, all Juniors and a handful of Seniors will take the ASVAB test. This is one test students complete on their pathway to graduation.

Tuesday, October 26th, all Sophomores and a handful of juniors will take the PSAT. This is a state-mandated test and is a good experience for students to navigate a standardized test.

Students who will not test will be in a classroom with a supervising teacher and will work on assignments uploaded into Google Classroom. All testing/non-testing locations will be posted each morning so that everyone knows exactly where they need to be.

Be sure to look for the  PowerSchool mobile app on your smart phone or smart device for even more convenience when looking at your student's grades and progress this year.
